

Why automatic updates are bad

Man is working on computer doing some important work, he is so close to being finished and he has to present it by tomorrow. Typing the last 15 words: computer restarts to install updates. He never even got to save his work. The next day: man tells boss what happened. Man the gets fired. Man then cannot find job. Man is low on money, hard to provide for family. Man tries to shoplift, because he has no money. Man gets arrested and sent to jail. Family has to live a harder life, selling the tv, chairs, tables, trying to get enough money to survive, pay bills and buy food. Family des of starvation. Man gets out of jail. Man finds out his family died. Man dies of heartbreak. Then the man's parents find out and go bankrupt and begging for loans trying to give them a proper burial. Parents are forced on the streets because of lack of money. Then who knows what happens next? WINDOWS, I HOPE YOU SEE THIS!
